

■■ Day 1

■■ Attractions

- Visit the iconic Victoria Memorial ■■ in Kolkata, a symbol of the city's rich history
- Explore the Indian Museum ■, which showcases a vast collection of Indian art and artifacts
- Take a stroll along the Hooghly River ■ and enjoy the beautiful sunset

■■ Food

- Try the famous Bengali dish, Kosha Mangsho ■, at a local restaurant like 6 Ballygunge Place
- Visit the legendary puttingalala sweets ■ and try their signature mishti doi (sweet yogurt)
- Enjoy a traditional Bengali thali ■ at a local eatery like Bhajanlal Sweets

■ Hotel

- Stay at the luxurious Hotel Oberoi Grand ■ in the heart of Kolkata
- Alternatively, consider the budget-friendly Hotel Astoria ■ in the Park Street area
- The best area to stay is around Park Street or Esplanade, which offers easy access to major attractions

■ Transportation

- Hire a taxi or use a ride-hailing app like Ola or Uber to move around the city
- Use the Kolkata Metro ■ to travel longer distances and avoid traffic

■■ Day 2

■■ Attractions

- Visit the Dakshineswar Kali Temple ■, a stunning example of Bengali architecture
- Explore the Belur Math ■, the headquarters of the Ramakrishna Mission
- Take a day trip to the nearby town of Chandannagar ■, known for its French colonial architecture

■■ Food

- Try the famous Jhal Muri ■, a spicy puffed rice snack, at a street food stall
- Visit the iconic Peter Cat restaurant ■ and try their signature Chelo Kebab
- Enjoy a traditional Bengali breakfast ■ at a local eatery like Mitra Cafe

■ Hotel

- Continue staying at the Hotel Oberoi Grand ■ or Hotel Astoria ■
- Consider a day trip to the nearby town of Serampore ■, which offers a range of accommodation options

■ Transportation

- Use the same transportation options as Day 1
- Consider hiring a private car and driver for the day trip to Chandannagar

■■ Day 3

■■ Attractions

- Visit the Rabindra Sadan ■, a cultural complex dedicated to the life and work of Rabindranath Tagore
- Explore the Academy of Fine Arts ■, which features a range of art exhibitions and performances
- Take a stroll through the beautiful Eco Park ■, a tranquil oasis in the heart of the city

■■ Food

- Try the famous Bengali dish, Biryani ■, at a local restaurant like Arsalan
- Visit the iconic Girish Chandra Dey & Nakur Nandy ■ and try their signature sandesh (Bengali sweets)
- Enjoy a traditional Bengali lunch ■ at a local eatery like Bhromor Restaurant

■ Hotel

- Continue staying at the Hotel Oberoi Grand ■ or Hotel Astoria ■
- Consider a range of accommodation options in the nearby area of Ballygunge

■ Transportation

- Use the same transportation options as Day 1
- Consider using the Kolkata Metro ■ to travel to the Eco Park

■■ Day 4

■■ Attractions

- Visit the Science City ■, a popular destination for science enthusiasts

- Explore the Nicco Park ■, an amusement park with a range of thrill rides and attractions
- Take a day trip to the nearby Sundarbans ■, the world's largest mangrove forest (optional)

■■ Food

- Try the famous Bengali dish, Mishti Doi ■, at a local sweet shop like K.C. Das
- Visit the iconic Mocambo restaurant ■ and try their signature European-style cuisine
- Enjoy a traditional Bengali dinner ■ at a local eatery like Oh! Calcutta

■ Hotel

- Continue staying at the Hotel Oberoi Grand ■ or Hotel Astoria ■
- Consider a range of accommodation options in the nearby area of Salt Lake

■ Transportation

- Use the same transportation options as Day 1
- Consider hiring a private car and driver for the day trip to the Sundarbans (if planned)

■■ Day 5

■■ Attractions

- Visit the Kolkata Museum of Modern Art ■, which features a range of contemporary art exhibitions
- Explore the St. Paul's Cathedral ■, a stunning example of Gothic architecture
- Take a stroll through the beautiful Maidan ■, a vast open space in the heart of the city

■■ Food

- Try the famous Bengali dish, Luchi ■, at a local restaurant like 6 Ballygunge Place
- Visit the iconic Annapurna Sweets ■ and try their signature jalebi (Indian sweet)
- Enjoy a traditional Bengali breakfast ■ at a local eatery like Mitra Cafe

■ Hotel

- Continue staying at the Hotel Oberoi Grand ■ or Hotel Astoria ■
- Consider a range of accommodation options in the nearby area of Chowringhee

■ Transportation

- Use the same transportation options as Day 1
- Consider using the Kolkata Metro ■ to travel to the airport for your departure

■ Estimated Budget

- Hotels: ■2,500 - ■3,500 (approximately $35-$50 USD per night)
- Food: ■1,500 - ■2,500 (approximately $20-$35 USD per day)
- Transportation: ■500 - ■1,000 (approximately $7-$15 USD per day)
- Activities: ■1,000 - ■2,000 (approximately $15-$30 USD per day)
- Total: ■5,000 - ■7,000 (approximately $70-$100 USD for the entire 5-day trip)

■ Travel Tips

- Safety tips: Be mindful of your belongings, especially in crowded areas, and avoid traveling alone at night.
- Best time to visit: The best time to visit West Bengal is during the winter months (October to February), when the weather is pleasant and cool.
- Local advice: Learn a few basic Bengali phrases, such as "■■■■■■■■" (dhanyabad) for "thank you", to show respect for the local culture.
- Things to avoid: Avoid eating from street vendors that do not appear hygienic, and avoid traveling during peak hours to avoid traffic congestion.