

■■ Day 1

■■ Attractions

- Visit the iconic Eiffel Tower ■■ for a breathtaking view of the city
- Explore the nearby Champ de Mars park for a relaxing stroll
- Discover the historic Arc de Triomphe ■■ and the famous Champs-Élysées avenue

■■ Food

- Try a classic French baguette with cheese and charcuterie at a local bakery ■
- Visit a traditional Parisian café, such as Café de Flore or Les Deux Magots, for a coffee and croissant ■
- Enjoy a Seine River dinner cruise with a gourmet meal ■

■ Hotel

- Stay at the luxurious Hotel Plaza Athénée ■ or the boutique Hotel Le Walt ■
- Choose a hotel in the 1st or 8th arrondissement for easy access to main attractions
- Consider a hotel with a view of the Eiffel Tower for a romantic ambiance ■

■ Transportation

- Take a taxi or Uber from the airport to your hotel ■
- Purchase a Paris Visite pass for unlimited public transportation, including metro and bus ■
- Walk or bike along the Seine River for a scenic and leisurely ride ■■■■

■■ Day 2

■■ Attractions

- Visit the famous Louvre Museum ■ to see the Mona Lisa and other art masterpieces
- Explore the charming Montmartre neighborhood with its bohemian vibe and street artists ■
- Visit the beautiful Notre-Dame Cathedral ■■ and the adjacent Sainte-Chapelle ■

■■ Food

- Sample French delicacies, such as escargots, ratatouille, and duck confit, at a traditional bistro ■
- Visit a local market, such as the Marché aux Puces de Saint-Ouen, for fresh produce and artisanal goods ■■

- Enjoy a wine and cheese tasting experience at a wine bar ■

■ Hotel

- Continue staying at your chosen hotel or consider a hotel in the trendy Marais neighborhood ■
- Take advantage of your hotel's amenities, such as a fitness center or spa ■■■■
- Ask your hotel concierge for recommendations on local restaurants and attractions ■

■ Transportation

- Use your Paris Visite pass to travel to the Louvre and other attractions ■
- Take a scenic river cruise to see the city's landmarks from a different perspective ■■■■
- Walk or take a short taxi ride to explore the Montmartre neighborhood ■■■■

■■ Day 3

■■ Attractions

- Visit the iconic Palace of Versailles ■ with its stunning gardens and fountain shows
- Explore the trendy Le Marais neighborhood with its fashionable boutiques and art galleries ■■
- Visit the famous Galeries Lafayette department store with its impressive views of the city ■■

■■ Food

- Try a traditional French breakfast with croissants, baguettes, and jam at a local café ■
- Sample a variety of French cheeses, such as Camembert and Brie, at a fromagerie ■
- Enjoy a dinner at a Michelin-starred restaurant, such as Le Grand Vefour or L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon ■

■ Hotel

- Consider a day trip to the nearby town of Reims, famous for its champagne production ■
- Take a break and relax at your hotel or explore the surrounding neighborhood ■
- Make reservations for a dinner at a renowned restaurant ■

■ Transportation

- Take a train from Paris to Versailles for a day trip ■
- Use your Paris Visite pass to travel to other attractions, such as the Galeries Lafayette ■

- Walk or take a short taxi ride to explore the Le Marais neighborhood ■■■■

■■ Day 4

■■ Attractions

- Visit the famous Musée d'Orsay with its impressive collection of Impressionist art ■
- Explore the charming Île de la Cité with its historic bridges and scenic views ■
- Visit the modern and innovative La Défense neighborhood with its futuristic architecture ■

■■ Food

- Try a classic French dish, such as Coq au Vin or Bouillabaisse, at a traditional bistro ■
- Sample a variety of French pastries, such as macarons and madeleines, at a patisserie ■
- Enjoy a coffee and snack at a charming café, such as Café de la Paix or Angelina ■

■ Hotel

- Consider a spa day or massage at your hotel to relax and rejuvenate ■■■■
- Take a break and enjoy the hotel's amenities, such as a fitness center or pool ■■■■
- Make reservations for a dinner at a highly-recommended restaurant ■

■ Transportation

- Use your Paris Visite pass to travel to the Musée d'Orsay and other attractions ■
- Take a scenic walk along the Seine River and explore the Île de la Cité ■
- Take a taxi or Uber to La Défense neighborhood ■

■■ Day 5

■■ Attractions

- Visit the famous Sainte-Chapelle with its stunning stained glass windows ■
- Explore the historic Latin Quarter with its narrow streets and charming atmosphere ■
- Visit the modern and trendy Canal Saint-Martin neighborhood with its boutique shops and cafes ■■

■■ Food

- Try a traditional French brunch with eggs, bacon, and pastries at a local bistro ■

- Sample a variety of French wines, such as Bordeaux and Champagne, at a wine bar ■
- Enjoy a farewell dinner at a Michelin-starred restaurant, such as Le Bernardin or L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon ■

■ Hotel

- Check out of your hotel and head to the airport for your departure ■■
- Consider a late check-out or luggage storage if you have a late flight ■■
- Take a last-minute stroll around the neighborhood or visit a nearby attraction ■

■ Transportation

- Take a taxi or Uber to the airport for your departure ■
- Use your Paris Visite pass for any last-minute travel or attractions ■
- Walk or take a short taxi ride to explore the surrounding neighborhood ■■■■

■ Estimated Budget

- Hotels: €800 - €1,200 per person for 5 nights (approximately $900 - $1,400 USD)
- Food: €500 - €800 per person for 5 days (approximately $570 - $900 USD)
- Transportation: €100 - €200 per person for 5 days (approximately $115 - $230 USD)
- Activities: €200 - €300 per person for 5 days (approximately $230 - $350 USD)
- Total: €1,600 - €2,500 per person for 5 days (approximately $1,815 - $2,880 USD)

■ Travel Tips

- Safety tips: Be aware of pickpocketing in crowded areas and keep valuables secure ■■■■
- Best time to visit: Spring (April - June) and autumn (September - November) for mild weather and smaller crowds ■■
- Local advice: Learn basic French phrases, such as "bonjour" and "merci", to show respect for the culture ■■
- Things to avoid: Avoid eating at touristy restaurants and opt for local, authentic cuisine instead ■
- Additional tips: Consider purchasing a Paris Museum Pass for skip-the-line access to attractions, and make reservations for popular restaurants in advance ■